

WHAT'S YOUR STORY? STORY-TELLING CONTEST

For self-advocates and family members.

Calling all Vermont writers, singers, comedians, and poets who live in our disability community...

The Vermont Developmental Disabilities Council wants your stories!

VTDDC is hosting a story-telling contest to celebrate voices from the disability community. The theme is "Be the Change."

Contest winners will be invited to perform at the much-anticipated "From Our House To Yours, an evening of story-telling" at the Vermont State House, February 20th.

You do not need to know how to read or write to participate.

Contest Rules:

1. Stories must stay within 3 to 5 minutes.
2. Stories must describe a way in which disability has impacted you, your family, and/or the community, and be based on true events.

3. Submit your story in any one of the following formats: (1) a written script; (2) a video; or (3) an audio recording.

Our Review Team may consider other types of media.

4. Send your stories to: vtddc@vermont.gov

Questions about accommodations and the contest? Call us! 1 \(802\) 828-1310

Deadline for submission is February 14, 2020

Contest winners should not let transportation or support be a barrier. VTDDC can help winners with 1) arranging transportation to the State House, and 2) support during the event.
